

Consortium Ethics Program Seminar Series

Empathy, Ethics, and the Challenges of Difference

Session 3: The Intersection of Cultural Humility and Medical Ethics—A Case of Female Circumcision

Tuesday, October 6, 2020 | 11:00 am – 12:00 noon

Amy VanDyke, MSW, PhD

Vice President of Programs
Catholic Social Services
Columbus, OH

Objectives:

- Explore stakeholder perspectives and their associated ethical obligations through a real-world case example
- Learn the scope of female circumcision (FC) in the world along with various techniques and associated care issues related to the techniques
- Identify the ethical, legal, and identity considerations present when providing care to women who have undergone FC and working towards a culturally sensitive experience.
- Improve communication skills and care-giving practices when working with women who have undergone FC.

On-line via Zoom—Registration Required

Contact Jody Stockdill at cep@pitt.edu for additional information.